

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 16. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 21.

Milan, Dec. 8.

TWELVE HUNDRED Men, who were embark'd at Final, are sail'd for Barcelona. According to the Advices from Rome the Accommodation with the Court of Vienna is in good Forwardness. 'Tis reported that the following Propositions have been made to the Pope; but we cannot warrant them to be true and genuine.

That he shall acknowledge King Charles III, and grant him the Investiture of the Kingdom of Naples: That he shall dispart by degrees, disbanding two Troops or Companies a Month; and that the Soldiers brought from Avignon, shall be sent out of the Ecclesiastical State: That Winter Quarters shall be given to 15000 Imperialists, in the Territories of the Church: That all the Ecclesiastical Revenues stop'd or confiscated in the Kingdom of Naples, shall be restor'd: That the Blockade of Ferrara and Fort Urbano shall be withdrawn: That Parma and Comacchio shall be put into the Hands of a third Person: And that afterwards the Emperour's other Pretensions shall be discuss'd.

The Count de Zinzendorf, is pos'd through this City, on his Way to Vienna from Barcelona. The King has caus'd 12000 Crowns to be advanc'd to Count Stampa, towards defraying the Expence of his Voyage to Libon, with the Character of Ambassador from his Majesty, to Compliment the King of Portugal on his Marriage. 'Tis said he will first go to Vienna, the Hague, and London. Four Persons who were formerly made Prisoners by the Imperialists in the Kingdom of Naples, have been exchang'd; one of them is Collonel Don Antonio Gusman, Nephew to the Marquis de los Balbases: But the Duke d' Escalona continues Prisoner in Pizziglione. The Rumour continues, that the Duke of Modena will be made Governour of the Milaneze.

Venice, Dec. 8. They write from Bologna, that the Imperial Troops are posses'd of all the Posts of Romagna; that they continue the Blockade of Fort Urbano, and have made a Forrage for 10 Miles round it; and that they impatiently expect the Succes of the Negociations of the Marquis de Prie at the Court of Rome.

Letters from Modena give an Account, that Troops detach'd from Piemont for the Ecclesiastical State were passing that Way continually; that 3000 Prussians were arriv'd from the Mantuan at St. Agatha, a Village in the Bolognese, whither they have guarded 24 Cannon; and that a good Number of the Duke of Modena's regular Troops, are posted with some Militia along the Panaro.

Vienna, Dec. 8. The Deliberations of the Diet of Presburg continue still suspended; and are not like to be reassum'd, till it be known whether the Malecontents will accept of a Cessation of Arms upon the Terms offer'd by this Court. Count Tolvay, a Protonotary of Hungary, and formerly a Prisoner among the Malecontents, who had been sent from hence to negotiate this Affair with Prince Ragotski and Count Berezeni, is not yet return'd, neither has he hitherto sent any account of what Progress he has been able to make in his Negociation. The Imperial Officers who command in the Towns situated in the Mountains of Upper Hungary, (which were lately recover'd out of the Hands of the Malecontents,) complain of the great scarcity in those Parts of Provisions, and of all other things necessary for the Subsistence of the Troops. The Malecontents when they retir'd from the Mountains carry'd away with them or destroy'd all the Tools and other things necessary for working the Mines; but care is taking to provide others, and to set Miners to Work in order to make the best Advantage of this Acquisition. The chief Nobility of those Mountainous Parts, who are employ'd by the Malecontents in Civil or Military Trusts, retir'd with Prince Ragotski and Count Berezeni, abandoning their Estates; but a great many of the Gentlemen inhabiting those Parts, have submitted to the Emperour's Obedience. Baron Tige, who was marching with recruits for the Troops in Transilvania, has sent an Account that he has been oblig'd to stop on the Frontiers of Scavonia, C. Caroli having secur'd the Passes into Transilvania with a Body of 9000 Men. As the Imperialists have recover'd the Mountains of Upper Hungary, so the Malecontents have again made themselves Masters of the Mountains in Transilvania.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated December 21.

Paris, Dec. 17. 'Tis reported that two Squadrons of considerable Strength are fitting out, one at Brest, the other at Toulon. On Friday last the King receiv'd an Express from the Marquis de los Balbases Viceroy of Sicily; which Express had been 5 Weeks at Sea, and landed at Antibes. 'Tis said the Vice-roy makes pressing Instances for a strong Reinforcement, without which he apprehends he shall not well be able to defend that Island should the Allies attack it. They write from Versailles that a great Council was held there on Saturday last about military Affairs; and that the principal Sea-Officers are sent for to Court, to be consulted. They add, that the King has also sent for divers Persons, who have been formerly employ'd as Ambassadors to several Courts, and among the rest for M. de Callieres: From which some conjecture that his Majesty has Peace in his Thoughts.

Hague, Dec. 21. 'For some Time past there have been great Broils in the Province of Zealand; occasion'd by two contending Parties in the Regency; one of which Parties consisted of such who would maintain the said Regency or Government of the Province on the same Foot as 'twas modell'd in the Time of the last Stadholder King William; and the other Party consisted of such who since his Decease have sought to re-establish that Government on a more equal and republican Foundation, as best suiting with the general Interest of the seven Provinces as united in one Commonwealth. Now some leading Persons of the former Faction, have thought fit to come into the Measures of the latter; and, ('tis said,) they have actually agreed together to act in Conformity with the other Provinces, who have hitherto oppos'd the Stadholdership; and accordingly have made a Resolution, that their Province will (for its own part) never admit of any Stadholder or Captain General: Further, we are told they have agreed, that in Case they find themselves oblig'd to acknowledge any Person for Marquis of Terveer and Flushing (which Title belongs to the Head of the Family of Orange,) they will lay all the Restraints and Limitations they possibly can on the Possessor of that Title. The City of Flushing is said to have made the first Step towards this Accommodation; and we are told that that the Town of Zierikzee, which hitherto had been the most averse to the Revival of the republican Model, has resolv'd to follow the Example of the Towns which have already agreed to it. Yesterday the States of the Province of Holland resolv'd to continue for one Year more the Tax of the two Hundredth Penny ; and gave their Consent to the Establishment of the War drawn up by the Council of State : And we are assur'd, that all our Funds for the Expence of the next Year's War, are now actually settled. A considerable Augmentation of Troops for the next Campaign, is much talk'd of here : And in the mean time, that the Army at present employ'd against Ghent may be well supplyed with all things convenient for them in so uncomfortable a Season of the Year, the States have order'd that the Sutlers and others who carry any Provisions or other Goods to be dispos'd of in the Army, shall be exempted from all Duties of Importation and Exportation in all Places of their Dominions.
